SCHOOL

I hope everyone had a wonderful break over half-term. The children arrived back with big smiles and a little tired so we have been reminding them to get a good nights sleep so that they are ready to learn. New topics and a World Book Day celebration make the first week back very exciting and it was lovely to see all the creativity in outfits.

On Tuesday our collective worship council led the Lent assembly and it was wonderful – they even demonstrated some great pancake tossing skills. In school we have been talking about kind acts for lent and I am sure the children will come up with some great ideas.

This week I have been impressed by Naya and Anaiya from year 4, our Climate Changers. They have a clear vision of what they want to achieve and are even inspiring other children to take action. This week during Friday playtime they will be selling key rings that they have made for 50p-£1. I will also donate the proceeds of the stationary shop for the day to their chosen charity. They want to make sure we look after the planet and the animals that have become endangered. I love seeing leaders of the future develop and I hope we raise lots of money on Friday.
