

AUTUMN

Grammar and Punctuation

- Use both familiar and new punctuation correctly for example:
- Question marks
- Exclamation marks
- Commas in lists
- Sentences with different forms: statement, question, exclamation and command.
- Introduce a range co-ordination (using or, and, but)
- Introduce a range of subordination (using when/ if/ that/ because)

Revision

- Capital letter for names of people, places, the days of the week
- Capital letters
- Full stops
- Personal pronoun 'I'.

SPRING

Grammar and Punctuation

- Expanded noun phrases to describe and specify the present and past tenses
- Present and past tense in the progressive form
- Apostrophes: contracted form and possessive form (singular nouns)

Revision

- Co-ordination (using or, and, but)
- Subordination (using when/ if/ that/ because)
- Sentences with different forms: statement, question, exclamation and command.

SUMMER

Grammar and Punctuation

- Adverbs
- Prepositions to express time and cause

Revision

- Sentences with different forms: statement, question, exclamation and command.
- Adjectives and suffixes
- Verb tenses (past, present)
- Apostrophes: contracted form and possessive form (singular nouns)
- Co-ordination (using or, and, but)
- Subordination (using when/ if/ that/ because)